VIII. Consideration of Resolutions

~~There shall be a first reading and a final reading of each resolution.~~ Every numbered resolution shall include a public hearing and shall be read on two (2) different occasions prior to final adoption. On the first reading, a resolution shall be read by number and title only when introduced. On call of a public hearing for a resolution, the resolution shall be read a second time. On call of resolutions for final ~~passage~~ adoption, resolutions eligible for ~~passage~~ adoption shall be called in numerical order. The resolution shall be read by number and short descriptive title only; provided, however, that at the request of any member, it shall be read once (and only once) for amendment before vote on final ~~passage~~ adoption. Vote on final ~~passage~~ adoption shall be on roll call by the yeas and nays, and a majority of the votes of the members shall be necessary to ~~pass~~ adopt the resolution. An enrolled copy shall be prepared after final ~~passage~~ adoption and certified to be a true copy by the Secretary. On enrolling, the Secretary shall have authority to correct obvious errors in section references and numbers, capitalization, spelling, grammar, headings and similar matters.

The Council may, but is not required, to hold a public hearing on an administrative resolution. If the Council elects to hold a public hearing on an administrative resolution, then it shall be read on two (2) different occasions prior to final adoption. Administrative resolutions for which no public hearing is held shall only be read once prior to final adoption.

A Resolution is effective as of final ~~passage~~ adoption.

IX. Consideration of Petitions

~~A.~~ On call of presentation of petitions, ~~memorials, and applications,~~ the Secretary shall present to the Chairman any petitions, ~~memorials or applications,~~ which shall be read by number and title. The Council may then, but shall not be required to, consider the petition and take appropriate action. A petition shall be deemed denied if, upon the conclusion of the Council meeting next following the Council meeting at which the petition is presented as set forth herein, no action has been taken thereon; provided, however, that no member(s) of the Council shall thereafter be precluded from directing the County Attorney to draft legislation that was the subject of such petition in accordance with these rules.

XIII. Conduct of Public Hearings and Special Meetings

A. General:

The rules in this section apply to public hearings held upon pending legislation, the budget, and the other matters subject to public hearings. Normally these hearings will be held in conjunction with regularly scheduled meetings, but they may be scheduled at other times by the Chairman in accordance with these rules.

B. Preliminary Action:

Upon convening the hearing, the presiding officer shall give a brief explanation of the purpose of the hearing and shall cause to be presented any information or data which is required before the public discussion and comments begin.

C. Public Participation:

Any person desiring to speak on the matters or issues under consideration shall first address the chair and shall not proceed until recognized by the chair. Upon initial recognition by the chair, the person shall give the following information before speaking to the issue:

1. Name
2. Home address
3. Persons or organization represented or that he is speaking as a private citizen
4. Whether he is speaking for or against the subject matter under consideration

Any person desiring to question any other person appearing before the Council shall first address the chair, and when recognized, request leave of the chair to ask a question of the witness and shall not proceed until leave is granted. Upon initial recognition, he shall identify himself as described above. Questions shall be brief, shall pertain only to the facts and matters at issue, shall be interrogatory in nature and not argumentative; questions shall not be preceded by statements nor shall they contain allusions to personality or motives. If the chair shall rule the question out of order or objectionable, it shall be the duty of the person asking it to withdraw the question. ~~When petitions are made to the Council, the persons or parties presenting same shall have the opportunity to state their case by presenting witnesses, exhibits, and other evidence.~~ At the option of the chair, the chair may require any person desiring to testify to take the following oath:

“Do you solemnly promise to speak truthfully in the testimony you are about to give?”

Witnesses shall be examined by the party introducing them and the chair shall allow a reasonable cross-examination by other parties in interest: ~~in~~. In the discretion of the chair, questions or cross-examination shall be reduced to writing and put by the County Solicitor attending the Council.

When confusion arises in the Hearing Room, or demonstrations of approval or disapproval are indulged in by the occupants of the Hearing Room, it shall be the duty of the chair to enforce order on its own initiative without any point of order being made by a Council member; under circumstances of confusion and disorder, the chair shall have the power, and it shall be the duty of the chair, to order the Hearing Room cleared, and the chair may, upon its own motion without a second or putting the matter to a vote, order the hearing adjourned to a fixed hour and date.

D. Questions by Council:

Any member, upon recognition by the chair, may question any speaker or witness.

E. Questions of Council members:

A Council member may be questioned only by consent of the Council.
